8       submits a false police report in connection with an 9       act described in paragraph (1) should also be pun-10      ished severely;

11              (4) false reporting described in paragraph (3)
12      not only serves to conceal potential criminal conduct 13      and obstruct the administration of justice, false re-14      porting also undermines the trust and confidence 15      that communities place in law enforcement agencies;

16              (5) obstruction of justice is intolerable in any 17      form, particularly in the form described in this sub-

19 TION OF POLICE REPORTS.—Pursuant to its authority 20 under section 994 of title 28, United States Code, the 21 United States Sentencing Commission shall review and 22 amend the Federal sentencing guidelines to ensure that 23 the guidelines provide an additional penalty increase of not 24 fewer than 4 offense levels if the defendant knowingly and 25 willfully falsifies a report in a material way with the intent

1 to falsify, conceal, or cover up a material fact, in further-2 ance of the deprivation of any rights, privileges, or immu-

10 TITLE IV—JUSTICE FOR VICTIMS 11 OF LYNCHING

12 SEC. 401. SHORT TITLE.

13           This title may be cited as the “Justice for Victims 14 of Lynching Act of 2020”.

15 SEC. 402. FINDINGS.

16           Congress finds the following:

17                   (1) The crime of lynching succeeded slavery as 18                   the ultimate expression of racism in the United 19                   States following Reconstruction.

20                   (2) Lynching was a widely acknowledged prac-21                   tice in the United States until the middle of the 22                   20th century.

23                   (3) Lynching was a crime that occurred
24                   throughout the United States, with documented inci-25                   dents in all but 4 States.

1           (4) At least 4,742 people, predominantly Afri-
2           can Americans, were reported lynched in the United 3           States between 1882 and 1968.

4           (5) Ninety-nine percent of all perpetrators of 5           lynching escaped from punishment by State or local 6           officials.

7           (6) Lynching prompted African Americans to 8           form the National Association for the Advancement 9           of Colored People (referred to in this section as the 10          “NAACP”) and prompted members of B’nai B’rith 11          to found the Anti-Defamation League.

12          (7) Mr. Walter White, as a member of the 13          NAACP and later as the executive secretary of the 14          NAACP from 1931 to 1955, meticulously inves-
15          tigated lynchings in the United States and worked 16          tirelessly to end segregation and racialized terror.

17          (8) Nearly 200 anti-lynching bills were intro-
18          duced in Congress during the first half of the 20th 19          century.

20          (9) Between 1890 and 1952, 7 Presidents peti-
21          tioned Congress to end lynching.

22          (10) Between 1920 and 1940, the House of 23          Representatives passed 3 strong anti-lynching meas-24          ures.

1           (11) Protection against lynching was the min-2           imum and most basic of Federal responsibilities, and 3           the Senate considered but failed to enact anti-lynch-4           ing legislation despite repeated requests by civil 5           rights groups, Presidents, and the House of Rep-6           resentatives to do so.

7           (12) The publication of “Without Sanctuary:
8           Lynching Photography in America” helped bring 9           greater awareness and proper recognition of the vic-10          tims of lynching.

11          (13) Only by coming to terms with history can 12          the United States effectively champion human rights 13          abroad.

14          (14) An apology offered in the spirit of true re-
15          pentance moves the United States toward reconcili-16          ation and may become central to a new under-17          standing, on which improved racial relations can be 18          forged.

19          (15) Having concluded that a reckoning with 20          our own history is the only way the country can ef-
21          fectively champion human rights abroad, 90 Mem-
22          bers of the United States Senate agreed to Senate
23          Resolution 39, 109th Congress, on June 13, 2005, 24          to apologize to the victims of lynching and the de-

1 scendants of those victims for the failure of the Sen-
2 ate to enact anti-lynching legislation.

3 (16) The National Memorial for Peace and Jus-
4 tice, which opened to the public in Montgomery, Ala-5 bama, on April 26, 2018, is the Nation's first memo-
6 rial dedicated to the legacy of enslaved Black people, 7 people terrorized by lynching, African Americans hu-8 miliated by racial segregation and Jim Crow, and 9 people of color burdened with contemporary pre-10 sumptions of guilt and police violence.

11 (17) Notwithstanding the Senate's apology and 12 the heightened awareness and education about the 13 Nation's legacy with lynching, it is wholly necessary
14 and appropriate for the Congress to enact legisla-15 tion, after 100 years of unsuccessful legislative ef-16 forts, finally to make lynching a Federal crime.

17 (18) Further, it is the sense of Congress that 18 criminal action by a group increases the likelihood 19 that the criminal object of that group will be suc-
20 cessfully attained and decreases the probability that 21 the individuals involved will depart from their path
22 of criminality. Therefore, it is appropriate to specify 23 criminal penalties for the crime of lynching, or any 24 attempt or conspiracy to commit lynching.

1           (19) The United States Senate agreed to unani-2 mously Senate Resolution 118, 115th Congress, on 3 April 5, 2017, “[c]ondemning hate crime and any 4 other form of racism, religious or ethnic bias, dis-
5 crimination, incitement to violence, or animus tar-6 geting a minority in the United States” and taking 7 notice specifically of Federal Bureau of Investigation 8 statistics demonstrating that “among single-bias 9 hate crime incidents in the United States, 59.2 per-10 cent of victims were targeted due to racial, ethnic, 11 or ancestral bias, and among those victims, 52.2 12 percent were victims of crimes motivated by the of-13 fenders’ anti-Black or anti-African American bias”.

14           (20) On September 14, 2017, President Donald 15 J. Trump signed into law Senate Joint Resolution 16 49 (Public Law 115–58; 131 Stat. 1149), wherein 17 Congress “condemn[ed] the racist violence and do-18 mestic terrorist attack that took place between Au-
19 gust 11 and August 12, 2017, in Charlottesville,
20 Virginia” and “urg[ed] the President and his admin-21 istration to speak out against hate groups that 22 espouse racism, extremism, xenophobia, anti-Semi-23 tism, and White supremacy; and use all resources
24 available to the President and the President’s Cabi-

1 net to address the growing prevalence of those hate
2 groups in the United States”.

3 (21) Senate Joint Resolution 49 (Public Law 4 115–58; 131 Stat. 1149) specifically took notice of 5 “hundreds of torch-bearing White nationalists, 6 White supremacists, Klansmen, and neo-Nazis [who] 7 chanted racist, anti-Semitic, and anti-immigrant slo-8 gans and violently engaged with counter-demonstra-9 tors on and around the grounds of the University of 10 Virginia in Charlottesville” and that these groups 11 “reportedly are organizing similar events in other 12 cities in the United States and communities every-13 where are concerned about the growing and open 14 display of hate and violence being perpetrated by 15 those groups”.

16 (22) Lynching was a pernicious and pervasive 17 tool that was used to interfere with multiple aspects 18 of life—including the exercise of Federally protected 19 rights, as enumerated in section 245 of title 18, 20 United States Code, housing rights, as enumerated 21 in section 901 of the Civil Rights Act of 1968 (42 22 U.S.C. 3631), and the free exercise of religion, as 23 enumerated in section 247 of title 18, United States
24 Code. Interference with these rights was often effec-25 tuated by multiple offenders and groups, rather than

1 isolated individuals. Therefore, prohibiting conspir-
2 acies to violate each of these rights recognizes the 3 history of lynching in the United States and serves 4 to prohibit its use in the future.

5 SEC. 403. LYNCHING.

6 (a) OFFENSE.—Chapter 13 of title 18, United States
7 Code, is amended by adding at the end the following:

8 “§ 250. Lynching

9 “Whoever conspires with another person to violate 10 section 245, 247, or 249 of this title or section 901 of 11 the Civil Rights Act of 1968 (42 U.S.C. 3631) shall be 12 punished in the same manner as a completed violation of 13 such section, except that if the maximum term of impris-
14 onment for such completed violation is less than 10 years, 15 the person may be imprisoned for not more than 10 16 years.”.

17 (b) TABLE OF SECTIONS AMENDMENT.—The table of 18 sections for chapter 13 of title 18, United States Code, 19 is amended by inserting after the item relating to section
